

Event Insure

About Linx

Getting the right insurance protection for a sporting event or special event is quick and easy with our online solution – Event Insure. Simply answer a few questions, and easily purchase coverage within minutes.

Whether planning an organized event, party or pick-up sport, most venues require proof of liability insurance when renting their facility. Our product is designed to provide individuals or groups with an affordable and easy-to-understand way of purchasing insurance.

Our Products

This program provides event hosts with liability protection in the event of law suits arising from Bodily Injury or Property Damage through an organized event, including party rooms, meeting rooms or a sporting event.

Overview

- Commercial general liability - third party bodily injury or property damage limit options of $2M and $5M - $500 deductible with option to include liquor liability
- Personal and advertising liability - $1M limit
- Medical payments - $5K per person/$25K each accident
- Tenants legal liability $250K

Target Classes

Individuals or groups who rent facilities from:

- Municipalities
- Educational Institutions, including Private Schools, Colleges and Universities
- Churches
- Private Organizations

Event Insure can be purchased online by visiting <http://event-insure.aon.ca>. Answer a few simple questions about your event, and you'll be able to purchase your insurance coverage within minutes using your credit card. Once the transaction is complete, you'll receive an electronic notification and certificate providing proof of coverage. It's that easy!

Highlights

- Exclusive wording for Aon clients
- Peace of mind through best-in-class coverage
- Seasoned underwriting team
- Policies backed by Lloyd's of London syndicate, recognized as an industry expert within their field

Linx professionals can provide companies with the experience, tools and specialized industry expertise required to maintain a competitive edge. Contact the following representatives to find out more: specialty@linxunderwriting.ca